Be it resolved by the people of the state of Missouri that the Constitution be amended:

Article I, Section 2 of the Constitution is amended to read as follows:

Section 2. That all constitutional government is intended to promote the general welfare of the people; that all persons have a natural right to life, liberty, the pursuit of happiness and the enjoyment of the gains of their own industry; that all persons are created equal and are entitled to equal rights and opportunity under the law; that to give security to these things is the principal office of government, and that when government does not confer this security, it fails in its chief design.

The rights protected by the Constitution of the State of Missouri are the rights of natural persons only. Artificial entities, such as corporations, limited liability companies, and other entities, established by the laws of any State, the United States, or any foreign state shall have no rights under this Constitution and are subject to regulation by the People of Missouri, through State, or local law. The privileges of artificial entities shall be determined by the People of Missouri, through State, or local law, and shall not be construed to be inherent or inalienable. State and local government may regulate, limit, or prohibit contributions and expenditures by artificial entities to influence in any way the election of any candidate for public office or any ballot measure and such contributions are hereby prohibited.
